Abortion: Mostly ban or mostly legal?	Mostly Ban. Has signed restrictions requiring doctors to ask if abortion is related to rape, incest, or domestic violence; telling patients that effect of abortion pills can be undone; & banning use of Obamacare exchanges for abortion insurance.	Legal. “As governor, I’ll veto anti-abortion bills & work to overturn laws that erode any rights to make our own personal health care decisions.”
Campaign Finance Reform: Should there be restrictions or disclosure requirements on large and anonymous political donations?	No. Prohibited AZ cities from requiring organizations sponsoring campaign ads to reveal major financial backers. Considers it a First Amendment issue.	Criticizes money in politics but specific position unclear. Has pledged not to take money from lobbyists or corporate PACS & returned $7,000 to donors identified as lobbyists.
Climate Change: Is climate change a serious threat, and should government respond to that threat? Stand on Proposition 127, which requires utilities to produce 50% of energy from renewables by 2030.	Unclear. In 2015 said skeptical that it’s human caused. More recently said he’s convinced that it is. Undercut Prop 127 by signing bill that minimizes fines on utilities for not complying if it passes.	Yes. Real & urgent threat. Politicians doing nothing are putting all Arizonans at risk, while ignoring “an enormous economic opportunity to make Arizona the nation’s leader in solar energy.”
Contraception: Allow employers to withhold contraceptive coverage from employees if disagree with it based on religious beliefs?	Yes. After US Supreme Court allowed some corporations to deny contraceptives, called it “a win for religious freedom & yet another blow to #Obamacare.”	Unclear, but strong supporter of access to birth control.
Courts: Support Brett Kavanaugh nomination? (before recent allegations).	Yes. Co-authored a letter calling for the Senate to confirm “expeditiously.”	No. If confirmed, women’s rights will never have been “more at risk.”
Education: Increase funding for K-12 education?	Mixed. Increased funding distributions from state land trust through Prop 123, though this erodes long-term reserves. Opposed initiative funding education by taxing individuals earning over $250,000 a year.	Yes. Would support extra funding by expanding Proposition 301 sales tax initiative, which now provides $500 million a year to K-12. Also close corporate tax loopholes & raise taxes on top 1%.
Education: Provide vouchers so parents can send their children to private schools with public money?	Yes. Signed school voucher expansion bill that extended eligibility to all 1.1 million state schoolchildren.	No. Opposes school vouchers as “harmful, unaccountable & discriminatory.”
Education: Support recent Arizona teacher’s strike?	Initially wouldn’t meet with strike leaders. Eventually came to a settlement.	Yes. “Teachers are standing up & saying they’ve had enough! I stand proudly with our educators.”
